

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

Alejandro was only 10 years old when his mother disappeared one day and his life turned into a whirlwind .

DEPORTATIONS

- President Obama's administration has the record of deportations in US history.
- 400,000 people deported in just one year
- 93% of these deportees are from México, Guatemala, Honduras and El Salvador

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

If they have no family in the US they will be given up for adoption

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

Undocumented workers in the US

According to the department of Homeland Security it is estimated that there are over 11 million undocumented immigrants living in the US.

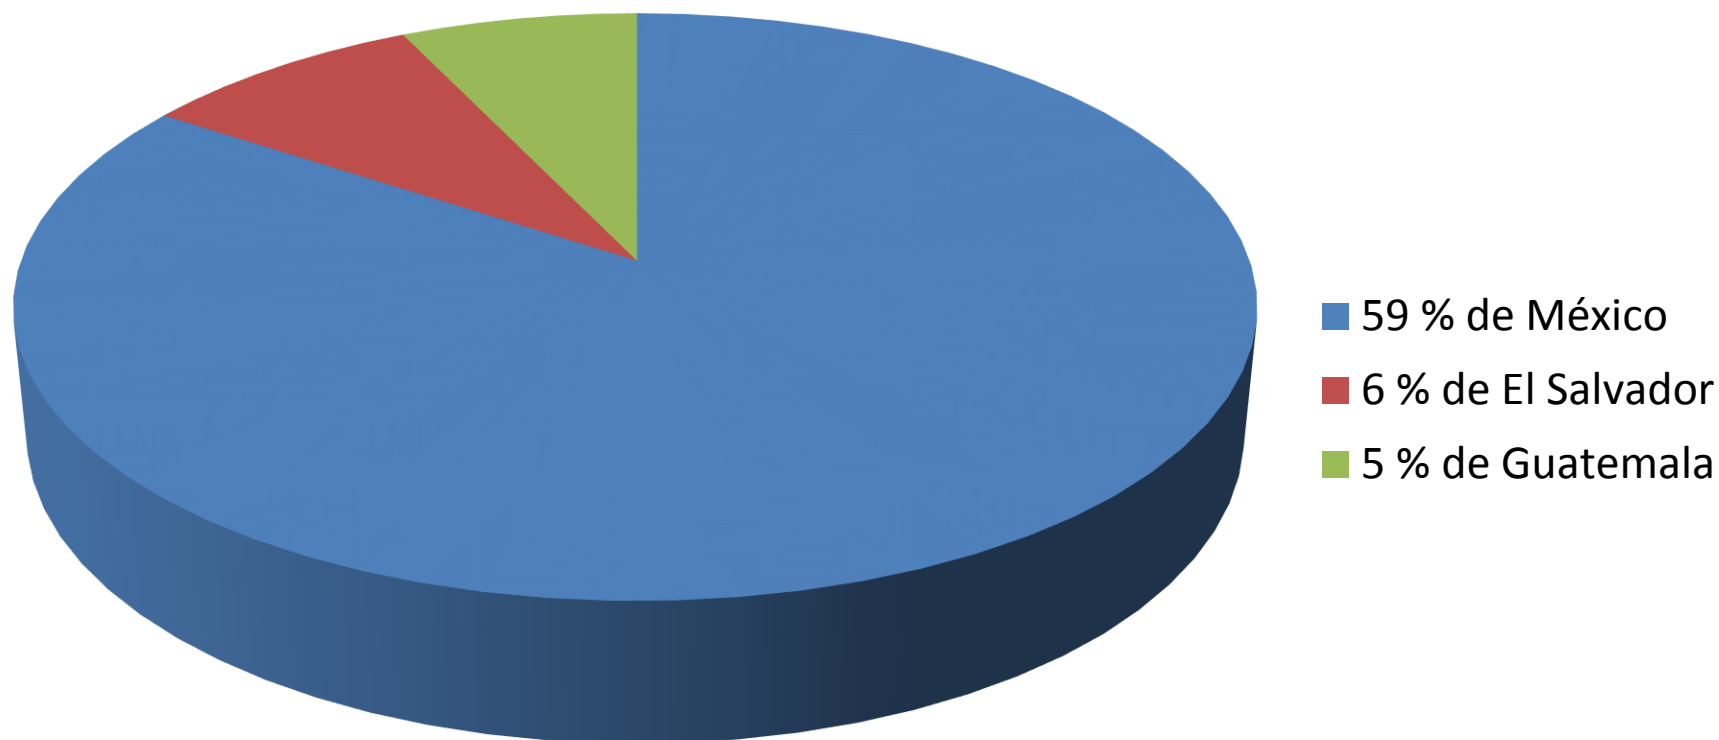

The majority of them live in:

Where do they come from?

México, El Salvador y Guatemala

Children with undocumented parents

- According to PHC: 5.5 million children have at least one undocumented parent
- 4.5 million of these children are US citizens and 1 million are undocumented.
- 1 of every 16 children who now live in foster homes have deported or incarcerated parents

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

This is our challenge, and even if it is a difficult one, it is not insurmountable.

¡intervention!

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

LACES

Was born in September 2012
To help reunite families and support Latin American Children left behind

LACES

Latin American Children's Extraordinary Support

A photograph showing the backs of several people, including children, looking towards a blurred outdoor background. The text is overlaid on the image in a large, bold, orange-outlined font.

It is the mission of LACES to serve and support these children helping them reunite with their families..